St. Cloud Federal Credit Union's Brandon Kuschel becomes Minnesota Credit Union Network (MNCUN) 2018 CREW Advisory Board Member

Assistant Branch Manager joins MNCUN Crew Advisory Board

St. Cloud, Minnesota: St. Cloud Federal Credit Union is proud to recognize Assistant Branch Manager, Brandon Kuschel, on his recent election to MNCUN's CREW Advisory Board. CREW is a group of young professionals (under 40) committed to strengthening and bringing awareness to the credit union movement. In addition to Mr. Kuschel's passion to grow the core of young professionals in our industry throughout Minnesota, Mr. Kuschel also brings an extensive background in leadership and organizational skills. This will make him an asset to MNCUN's CREW Advisory Board.

Mr. Kuschel graduated with a degree in advertising and his passion for creativity and working with people became overwhelmingly apparent, propelling him into leadership and management roles for the next 11 years. Mr. Kuschel joined St. Cloud Federal Credit Union as an Assistant Branch Manager over two years ago; Kuschel is an asset to the team and will be an added positive energy to the CREW's Advisory Board. COO/EVP Alyce Justin states, "Brandon's positive attitude means he always sees opportunity and does not shy away from challenges. This has helped him build a fun, positive and productive environment across our organization. I know he will be an asset as a CREW Board Member."

In addition to a successful leadership career, Mr. Kuschel also spends time volunteering with United Way and various events hosted by both St. Cloud Federal Credit Union and CREW. In Mr. Kuschel's free time he enjoys traveling with his wife, going to sporting events and participating in outdoor activities. "I am so honored to be a committed participant of the credit union movement and can't wait to partner with other fellow CREW board members to achieve our goals", states Kuschel.
